The Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission & Strike Processes

Presented By

Steve Baker - Baker Utility Partners

Steve will take attendees through the procedures that the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission (IURC) uses when a contractor has a utility strike. He will talk about best steps to take prior to excavations and what you can expect from the IURC in the event of a strike.

Steve has experience in underground utilities stretching back more than 40 years and is a regularly invited speaker to numerous conferences and workshops on this topic. Clients include businesses in utility, construction, excavating, environmental, engineering and surveying.
